

THE MILITARY BALANCE 2009

The Military Balance is the International Institute for Strategic Studies' annual assessment of the military capabilities and defence economics of 170 countries worldwide.

The Military Balance 2009 contains region-by-region analysis of the major military and economic developments affecting defence and security policies, and the trade in weapons and other military equipment. Comprehensive tables detail major military training activities, UN and non-UN deployments, and give data on key equipment holdings and defence economics, as well as defence-expenditure trends over a ten-year period.

KEY FEATURES

- Region-by-region analysis: major military issues affecting each region, changes in defence economics, weapons and other military equipment holdings and the trade in weapons and military equipment
- Comprehensive tables: key data on weapons and defence economics, such as comparisons of international defence expenditure and military manpower
- Analysis: significant military and economic developments
- Wallchart: detailed world map that shows current areas of conflict, with explanatory tables.

This new edition of The Military Balance provides a unique compilation of data and information enabling the reader to access all required information from one single publication.

January 2009: 246x189: 488pp
Pb: 978-0-415-49846-3

www.routledge.com/reference

'The Military Balance is the unique and vital resource on which informed public debate of the world's armed forces is founded.' – William S. Cohen, former U.S. Secretary of Defence

'Quite simply the definitive resource on current military and strategic affairs.' – Choice

The Armed Conflict Database

From the International Institute of Strategic Studies

FREE
TRIAL
OFFER

The IISS Armed Conflict Database (ACD) is an authoritative online source of data and independent analysis on current and recent conflicts.

www.iiss.org/acd

For more information or to order a free trial, email: reference@routledge.co.uk

www.iiss.org

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group